A Christ Caring People Who Gather Around Word and Sacrament, Yoked Together, In Personal Service to Christ in World Wide Missions

A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. And he said to the vinedresser, “Look, for three years now I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down. Why should it use up the ground?” And he answered him, “Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and put on manure. Then if it should bear fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.” Luke 13:6–9

AS WE GATHER In our fallen human condition, the experiences of our lives appear to tell us about God’s approval or judgment. We sometimes think that people with terrible problems are being punished. When life is easy, we slip into complacency, believing that God will overlook our minor sins. But God in His grace and mercy is always ready to forgive, if we will but repent. He proclaimed His invitation to repent through Ezekiel: “Why will you die, O house of Israel?” Through Paul, He promised help during temptation, “that you may be able to endure it.” And in Jesus’ parable, we see God withholding immediate judgment, as a tree is given another year to produce fruit. We do not know how long our “year” is; now is the time to reply to the invitation—and repent!

THE WELCOME AND OPENING PRAYER

If there are prayer concerns for you, your family, your friends, or your neighbors, please put them on the blue information card. Our Board of Elders are prayerful with our pastors about these joys and struggles of our earthly journey.

“The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.” James 5:16b

THE PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

P Let us pray for ourselves, the Church around the world, and all people in their various needs.

Let us pray for all who, like Ezekiel, are in positions in which they may preach God’s Word of condemnation and mercy.

C God of judgment and grace, give words of wisdom and opportune times to pastors and lay leaders that they may proclaim Your Word publicly here and around the world. Turn the hearts of those who hear the news of forgiveness through Christ.

P Let us pray for all who, like the leaders of Israel, are in positions of authority among the nations.

C God of judgment and grace, guide and protect all who make and carry out our laws. Raise up leaders in all the nations who will lead their people in peace and righteousness, justice and compassion.

P Let us pray for those who, like the psalmist, have endured years of distress and oppression.

C God of judgment and grace, as fits Your plans for them, relieve and restore them to times of dignity and freedom, peace and rejoicing, and thanksgiving for blessings flowing from Your hands.

P Let us pray for all God’s people who have become complacent and proud, living without moral compass.

C God of judgment and grace, use Your sure Word, the events of their lives, and our own witness when possible to awaken in them repentant hearts and a desire for amendment of life. Grant us grace to join them in daily contrition.

- P Let us pray for our Faith family and its friends in the midst of life's joys and struggles...and call out to God in their turmoil.
- C God of judgment and grace, bring Your gifts of comfort and healing to them. Use the talents You have given to health-care workers, emergency personnel, and members of law enforcement agencies and the armed forces for the good of all. Grant that they may serve You and the people around them to bring thanksgiving and praise to You, the author of life and health and salvation.
- P Into Your hands, heavenly Father, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in Your mercy for the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
- C Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

- C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Crossed Hands – The Board of Elders would find it helpful that when you desire to receive the communion wafer in your hand that you extend your hands in front of you. It is a nice tradition that you cross your hands simply placing your top hand crossed in the palm of the lower hand.

Prayer at the Pulpit Following both services Pastor Barbey will be by the Pulpit if you have prayer concerns this morning.

Holy Communion is celebrated at the both services this Sunday. In this Sacrament, our Lord brings us strength and forgiveness to be about His vision and mission. Those confirmed Lutherans who come to the Sacrament of the Altar today are asked to read the communion side of our information card found in the pew rack and to sign the bottom of the reverse side so that our communion records might be complete.

Morning Fellowship Join us between services in the CFLC for coffee and fellowship.

Sunday School Sunday School is for all children age 3 by September 1, 2015.

Our Adult Bible Study Join us as we continue our study on “Living Lent” at 9:45 in the Fellowship Hall.

Nursery The Nursery is available during the 11:00 service. It is located in the F/G Room downstairs. It is for children ages infant through 5 year olds.

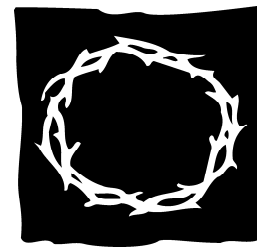

Nursing Moms can find a comfortable rocker in the Daycare. This is NOT a Nursery for young children, just a quiet, private place for nursing moms.

Lenten Notes – The season of Lent is 40 days long excluding the Sundays “in” Lent...This parallels the 40 days of temptation of Jesus in the wilderness...During Lent the joyful alleluias and the cheerful Hymn of Praise is not generally sung...the cross is draped to commemorate Christ’s death...the statue on the Altar is from our 1938 church and will remain until the Sunday following the Ascension...we generally do not place flowers on the Altar during Lent, which helps us appreciate the bright fragrant blooms of the Easter morning lilies...Lent is a time to devote more time to our devotions...Lent is a good time to give something up if it helps us focus on Christ’s passion, suffering and death for our sins...Lent is also a good time to take something up, a new discipline, more prayer, a project to help others... the Hymns tend to be minor key Hymns which reflect the soberness of the Season; may God richly bless your Lenten Journey.

University of South Dakota Chamber Singers One of the great joys of the season of Lent is the music. It sets the tone for our time of reflection and repentance. This year, we have the special privilege of welcoming the University of South Dakota Chamber Singers to be with us on Monday, March 7, and to sing for us. So join us on the 7th at 7PM for this wonderful opportunity.

The group will be with us one night and are looking for host homes for sets of 2-3 males or females. We'd ask, along with providing a place for them to sleep, that there would be breakfast and a ride to the church the next day, March 8, by 7:30 AM at the latest.

We thank you for your support and encouragement of this opportunity for our congregation and for our young men and women.
