A Message from our Interim Pastor

Interim. An in-between time. The Bible is full of interims. Jesus left his disciples to pray and they decided to have a rest interim. Meanwhile Judas was having a 'get ready to arrest' Jesus interim. Oftentimes the Bible doesn't tell us much about what happened during the interim times. What exactly did Jesus do between being buried and talking to the women on Easter morning? We have some glimpses, but no real for sures.

Of course to induce headaches, we might just say that all of life is in interim. We're between death and life, between meals, between thoughts, between yesterday and tomorrow. Well, let's just stop. You get the idea. God is a God who is always with us in between things.

Then there is being intentional. Sometimes things just happen, and we Christians may see the hand of grace behind it all and call it providence. I do kind of think the disciples likely put the whole Palm Sunday event down to providence. Lazarus had been raised and so a bunch of those sight-seers were out and swarming, while Jesus came into town and the noise built until the people in the city heard the noise and came out to see what was all up. Voila! Parade of scattered garments and palm branches. Nice, but not intentional from their view.

Going to Jerusalem that year, however, THAT was intentional. They'd argued. They'd pointed out the danger. Jesus was determined. At last they decided that if he wanted to risk his hide, they would risk theirs too. That was intentional.

Lent is intentional for us. We decide to do it. We could just do Easter. But setting the time apart for Lent makes Easter better, and so we intend to keep Lent. Each year the same, each year different. Our expectations are not always met 100%. Some years they are barely met at all. Even with the best intentions. But knowing God and trusting his leading we learn new things each time we relive the suffering and the kindness of Christ.

This year at Faith Lutheran Church Lent has also been a time for beginning another intentional interim. This one in the life of the congregation. It is a time between, a time to rethink, keep going, and look at things in a different light. This might (or might not) involve seven areas:

--to work through transition emotions that usually follow a pastoral change.

--to discover issues facing the congregation and develop ways of dealing with them.

--to examine the history of the congregation and previous pastor/member relationships.

--to discover the congregations special identity and what it dreams of being and doing.

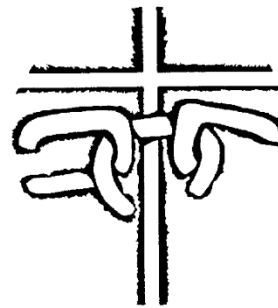

--to deal with shifts in professional and lay leadership that inevitably occur in times of transition.

--to strengthen the congregation's relationship with District and Synod, considering and using the available resources and the mutual responsibilities involved.

--to develop a commitment to the anticipated leadership of a new pastor with the possibilities the future will bring.

Of course, the Lord has this all planned out. But like most Biblical interim times, even as congregational leaders properly set out to be intentional, the Lord will work in ways wonderful, unexpected, and often unseen. He is the Lord of the Church.

Pastor Daniel Barbey

What's Next?

It doesn't take us long in our lives to come up with that one particular question we all want to know. Oh, you've certainly asked it I'm sure a time or two before. We all want to know: "What's next?"

It's the perfect question to ask when you're bored with life and life's circumstances. Kids ask it all the time! It's a question you would get from someone who has been through the wringer and has experienced one hardship after another. It's Murphey's Law—If something bad can happen, it will happen! "What's next?" It's the question you ask when your adrenaline is pumping and you feel you can take on the world! We've only filled 10,582 sandbags... "What's next?!?"

Joshua and the Israelites wondered: "What's next?" as they crossed over the Jordan without their leaders, Moses and Aaron, as they entered into the Promised Land of Canaan. The Disciples wondered: "What's next?" as Jesus' stone cold body was taken off the cross and laid into the stone cold tomb. So it's no surprise that we too might wonder: "What's next?" in our lives as well.

Our God reminds us in His Word that He will never leave us nor forsake us, (Hebrews 13:5) and that Jesus will not leave us, His Church, as orphans and widows (John 14:18). St. Paul says in Philippians 1:6 "I am confident, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." God knows what's next. God finishes what He started.

You may be wondering what's next for Faith Lutheran? President of the South Dakota District, Scott Sailer, came by and visited Faith on Super Bowl/Friendship Sunday and installed Faith's Intentional Interim Pastor, Pastor Dan Barbey. So part of what's next for us as a congregation is the yearlong service of an Intentional Interim Pastor who will lead, guide, and facilitate our transition from one period of faithful pastoral service to the next. What's next for Faith Lutheran is a continued building on the structure and leadership already in place through each of the church boards. What's next is continued faithfulness to the teaching and preaching of the Word of God and administration of the Sacraments. We indeed continue to live as a Christ caring people who are forgiven and redeemed through the holy and precious blood of Christ.

In one sense, "What's next?" well, only God knows (James 4:13-14), and yet in another, we know what's next in that we continue to live as Jesus' disciples who are called by faith into trust and action. We look forward to not only learning more about ourselves as a congregation and what our needs, wants, and interests are in this next year, but more immediately, we look forward to celebrating the goodness of our God through Easter worship on March 27th and the glorious resurrection of our Lord! May God bless you and His Church in all that is next. "For no eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has fully known what God has prepared for those who love Him."

1 Corinthians 1:9

We know what's next as the People of God who gather around Word and Sacrament. The Creeds tell us! "... from thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Christian Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life + everlasting." As a Christian, I can't wait for what's next!

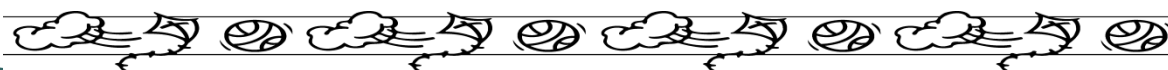

God's Peace Be With You!

waited for him,
so that he might Save Us.*

Corned Beef & Cabbage Meal

Faith Family-

It is that time of year again for our time honored corn beef cabbage boiled lunch.

As many of you know, this has been a fundraiser for different things.

- Our first year, we were blessed enough to go to Hong Kong.
- The second year, all monies went to the food pantry.
- This year, we are asking the funds go to the National Youth Gathering. About 30 of our youth plus adults are going to New Orleans to spend the week with Lutherans from all over the country. What a great opportunity for our youth and leaders!

We are asking you all

Daycare News

Greetings, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, from Faith Lutheran Daycare! Throughout March we are leading up to Jesus rising from the dead! Our lessons during circle time are; a poor widow, washing the Disciples feet, the last supper, Jesus is arrested, and Jesus has risen. Our crafts and projects will be based off Easter. Feel free to view some of the crafts on display in and around the daycare all times of the year. The children are all so proud of their projects!

We have received some very generous donations to the center recently. We are so grateful for all the thoughtfulness that goes into donating to our center. Thank you for the thoughtful members of our church family, board members, parents, and friends in the community!

Please continue to keep the daycare in your prayers as we strive to provide the best childcare possible. Have a great March!

Life Team News—March, 2016

CREATED-REDEEMED-CALLED

January 22, 2016 marked the 43rd anniversary of the landmark US Supreme Court decision known as Roe vs. Wade, which legalized abortion in the United States. In somber reflection of the over 56 million human lives lost to abortion since 1973, and in reverent gratitude for our Savior, Jesus Christ, Who has created, redeemed and called each one of us because He loves human life, Faith Lutheran congregation observed Life Sunday on January 24, 2016. Thank you to those who stopped by the Life Team information table that day to learn more about what it means to be a "For Life" Lutheran. Many of Faith's members enjoyed refreshments that day provided by the Faith Life Team, and joined in the Life Sunday Bible Study entitled "Created, Redeemed and Called." Thank you to Pastor Baumann for leading that life-affirming study. The Life Team also made presentations to the Sunday School classes on Sunday, January 17 and gave the students Scriptural reminders that the God who created and redeemed them wants them to respect human life at all stages.

RESPONDING TO THE PLANNED PARENTHOOD VIDEOS

2015 was a significant year in the pro-life movement as it saw the release of 11 disturbing videos that uncovered the heinous acts of Planned Parenthood in the procurement and illegal sale of human baby parts. In the aftermath of the videos, which were widely-circulated in major news outlets and on social media, many thousands of outraged individuals and pro-life groups, including our own LCMS synodical president, Rev. Matthew Harrison and the national director of Lutherans for Life, Rev. James Lamb, called on Congress to defund Planned Parenthood, our nation's leading abortion provider. And yet, many people, including some presidential candidates, have stood firm in their support of Planned Parenthood as a major provider of women's health services. When considering this situation, here are some important facts to keep in mind:

In 2014, Planned Parenthood received $528 million in taxpayer funding. With that, this so-called non-profit organization operated fewer than 700 clinics that provided services to fewer than 3 million women, including 378,692 pap tests; zero mammograms; and 327,653 abortions. In contrast, there are over 9,000 Community Health Centers operating in the US that served over 21 million women, providing 1,787,256 pap tests; 424,376 mammograms; and zero abortions. Where would you rather see your tax dollars go: to Planned Parenthood, or to a Community Health Center? (Source: www.abbyjohnson.org) For more information on Planned Parenthood and the sale of human baby parts, go to: www.lutheransforlife.org/planned-parenthood-the-latest.

For anyone at Faith Lutheran who wishes to join our Life Team, or simply wants to find out how to promote a Gospel-centered sanctity of human life, please join us at our monthly meetings which are held the 3rd Thursday of each month at 5:30 pm in the Living Room at Faith. All are welcome!

Tables and boxes will be set up in the Narthex. You can place your items in the appropriate boxes -or- just leave them on a table, and we'll be happy to sort and box them.

March is Faith's month to collect items for the Food Pantry.

During the month of March, we'll have tables in the Narthex, with boxes for donations of items for the Pierre-Ft. Pierre Food Pantry. At the end of the month, a crew of Faithful volunteers will haul the items to the Food Pantry.

Our congregation is one of the largest supporters of the Food Pantry. There is a significant need at this time, so our generous support of this project is very important.

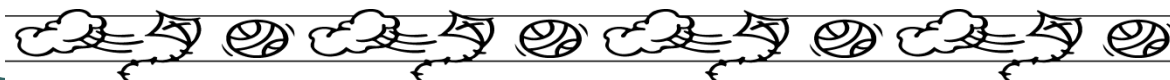

All types of nonperishable food, paper products, and personal hygiene items are needed by the agency, so be sure to keep an eye out for specials at the grocery store.

Financial Contributions

Financial donations are also welcome. Checks may be made payable to Pierre Area Referral Service / Food Pantry, and can be dropped off in the church office.

2016 LCMS National Youth Gathering

In Christ Alone

Held every 3 years, the LCMS Youth Gathering provides thousands of youth and adults the opportunity to come together as a community of God's people to learn more about Jesus Christ, the Christian faith and their Lutheran identity. During the five days of the Gathering, youth spend time together in God's word, worship, service and fellowship with others from across the synod. This event is organized by LCMS Youth Ministry in Saint Louis, MO.
